

Dr. Bernhard Rosenberger

Partner

Dr. Bernhard Rosenberger is the founder and partner of Rosenberger + Partner and has been an entrepreneur himself for 15 years. He supports clients in leadership, change and HR topics. He accompanies managing directors, board members and executives in the development and implementation of comprehensive personnel and change concepts. He studied Journalism, Economic Policy and Public Law and was Consultant at McKinsey & Company, Head of Central Personnel and Organizational Development of Hubert Burda Media and HR Manager of a subsidiary of T-Systems.

Experience and qualifications:

- + Media and communication scientist and Dr. phil., University of Mainz
- + Journalist, daily papers, SWR, BR, ZDF
- + Consultant and Project Manager, McKinsey & Co.
- + Chief of staff of the publisher, Head of Central Personnel and Organizational Development, Head of Journalism School, Hubert Burda Media
- + Personnel manager and member of the management, Detecon International GmbH
- + Association chairman of the Association of Change Management (BDU)
- + Numerous trainings in leadership, organization, HR, coaching and change management

